

KENT COUNTY PLAYING FIELDS ASSOCIATION.

DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT.

This statement explains how Kent County Playing Fields Association (KCPFA) handles and uses the personal details which it collects about its Trustees, Members, Sports Clubs, Applicants, and competitors in KCPFA competitions (hereinafter collectively called Consultants). Retention of this information regarding Consultants enables KCPFA to keep in touch with them in order to keep them advised of KCPFA activities, and to enable KCPFA to discharge its responsibilities as required by its constitution and to pursue its legitimate interests. KCPFA is committed to protecting all personal information and being open about the nature of the information which it holds. In the event that KCPFA rely upon an individual's consent for holding such data, such consent may be withdrawn at any time.

The extent of this Policy:

This policy describes how KCPFA will make use of the data which it handles in pursuit of its legitimate interests. It also describes Consultants' data protection rights, including a right to object to any processing which KCPFA may carry out.

Personal Data Collected and Held:

The personal information held by KCPFA will primarily be that provided by Consultants (or, in the case of minors, by their parents) in correspondence from Consultants by post, telephone, email or otherwise. On occasion, details regarding Consultants may be received from sports clubs within the County of Kent..

The records may contain:

- Contact details as supplied and periodically updated by Consultants.
- The name, gender, and date of birth of individuals.
- Club affiliations and details of membership.
- Bank account details when provided for payment of membership or other fees or to enable KCPFA to make payments.
- Personal data supplied by Consultants for specific purposes (e.g. medical conditions and disability requirements).
- Any qualifications or work experience supplied by an individual

Some information will be generated as part of an individual's involvement with KCPFA.

Information received from third parties:

KCPFA may on occasion receive information from third parties, e.g. information regarding a minor supplied by parents, details of participants in a competition supplied by a sports club.

Use of Personal Data by KCPFA:

Consultants' Personal Data is used by KCPFA for:

- Sending to Consultants details of its activities and inviting them to attend events.
- Collecting subscriptions and other payments which may be due.
- Discharging its responsibilities as set out in its constitution as a Playing Fields Association.
- Internal record-keeping.
- Administrative purposes.
- Purposes required by law, e.g. maintenance of accounting and health and safety records, compliance with the requirements of government and law enforcement authorities.

Direct Marketing:

KCPFA will not use personal data for any direct marketing purposes whatsoever.

Sharing of Data:

Personal data may be shared with government authorities and/or law enforcement agencies if mandated by law, or if required for the legal protection of the legitimate interests of KCPFA in compliance with applicable laws.

Personal data may also be shared with third-party service providers who will process it on behalf of KCPFA.

Consultants' Rights:

Consultants the right to:

- Ask KCPFA for access to, or rectification or erasure of, their individual data Provided that KCPFA will not delete information which it is required to keep by law.
- Restrict the data provided, subject to the proviso above.
- Object to the receipt of communications by any specific method.
- Request the transfer of their individual data to a third party.

Members have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Retention of Data:

Consultants' personal data will be processed for as long as they retain their membership or active involvement with KCPFA and, save as hereinafter mentioned, for up to one year thereafter. However, KCPFA will retain information to maintain statutory records in line with appropriate statutory requirements or guidance. Records of an individual's involvement in a particular competition, or on being the subject of a grant or award, may be held indefinitely by KCPFA in order to maintain a historic record of KCPFA.

Further Information:

The legal basis for processing your personal data for the purposes set out above is that it is necessary for the pursuit of KCPFA's legitimate interests. KCPFA always handles personal data securely and minimises its use, and there is no overriding prejudice to Consultants by using their personal information for these purposes. However, there is no statutory or contractual requirement for Consultants to provide KCPFA with any personal data.

Those who have concerns or questions about the information contained in this statement, or who do not want KCPFA to process their personal data for specific purposes, should contact the KCPFA secretary at 24 Tennison Way, Maidstone, Kent, ME15 9GE, Tel: 01622 691009, email: kcpfa@hotmail.co.uk Where Consultants have specific requests relating to the management of their personal data, KCPFA will endeavour to resolve these but there may be circumstances where it is unable to comply with a specific request.
